About Our Studio

Atlantis Studio presents a generous 100sqm warehouse, ingeniously transformed into a dynamic content creation hub.

Adorned with pristine white walls and resilient carpet & concrete floors, it boasts front roller doors that bathe the space in natural light.

Thoughtfully curated furnishings, props, and backdrops are included at no additional charge, ensuring each booking enjoys a seamless shooting experience. Positioned uniquely to capture the best lighting, its west-facing roller doors accommodate both morning and afternoon sessions.

Nestled just 20km from the CBD in a serene industrial locale, the studio offers two dedicated parking spots, with extra parking available within the complex. Accessibility is effortless, with nearby public transit options, including the Southland Shopping Centre train station, Cheltenham Station, and Sandringham train station.
